Local artists with a disability will be exhibiting their work at the Lone Goat Art Gallery in Byron Bay for the third year in a row.

The REDinc. artists will share with the local North Coast community a fresh and unique view of the world through various arts media: acrylic, mixed media, ceramics and works on paper.

Of the exhibition, REDinc. Art Exhibition Director, Josie Donnelly, says:

"Our artists participate regularly in group and solo exhibitions throughout the year, as well as exhibiting in art competitions regionally, nationally and internationally. The professional art practices of the REDinc. artists are supported by experienced and passionate local artists and facilitators; this exhibition is just one of our yearly events that showcase the talent of our artists."

The REDinc. IncREDible ART EXHIBITION will give insight into the lives, interests and experiences of local contemporary artists with disability, by showcasing their vision, spirit and breadth of abilities; expressed beautifully in their range of works. The artworks are vibrant, expressive and passionate."

The REDinc. incREDible ART EXHIBITION will kick off with an opening night on Friday 7th April 2017 from 6pm-8pm at the Lone Goat Gallery, 28 Lawson Street, Byron Bay (part of Byron Bay Library). Everyone is welcome. The exhibition will be open until Wednesday 19th April 2017.
